

Powering Business Worldwide

Media Brief

Eaton Places Among the Top 100 in the InformationWeek 500 Rankings

October 7, 2009 ... Eaton is pleased to announce that it was ranked 95th in the InformationWeek 500. This list tracks the information technology (IT) practices of America's most innovative IT organizations and provides a unique opportunity to understand and examine the business practices of these firms. The InformationWeek 500 spans the core areas of operations, including technology deployment, IT budgets, business-technology infrastructure and IT strategies.

For more than 20 years, InformationWeek has compiled this annual ranking of the 500 most innovative users of business technology in the nation. The InformationWeek 500 research reveals the strategies and best practices of the top 500 companies in a comprehensive study each year.

"Year after year, InformationWeek 500 companies harness technology to improve efficiency, boost productivity, drive revenue and establish a competitive advantage. We applaud this year's winners, and the CIOs and other executives whose ingenuity and risk taking are at the center of business technology innovation," said Rob Preston, editor-in-chief of InformationWeek.

Information Week is a 29-year-old publication read by more than 440,000 business technology professionals. Its mission is to help CIOs and IT executives define and frame their business technology objectives.

To learn more about Eaton's complete series of products and services, visit our Web site at www.eaton.com/powerquality.

###